Office Facilitator
Brookstone Weaverville Campus

Brookstone Church

Office Facilitator Job Description

PURPOSE:

The Office Facilitator serves as both the first point of contact for Brookstone Church and as a key provider of administrative support. This role ensures a warm, professional, and efficient experience for guests, staff, and church members while managing daily office operations. The individual in this position helps maintain smooth office functions, supports the Next Steps ministry, and upholds the mission and values of Brookstone Church.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Reception

- Create a welcoming and professional first impression for all visitors, guests, and staff.
- Greet, direct, and assist visitors while ensuring a positive guest experience.
- Answer, screen, and route phone calls; respond to voicemails and emails promptly.
- Provide detailed information and assistance regarding church services, events, and ministries.

Office Coordination

- Oversee daily office operations, including mail, deliveries, and supply inventory management.
- Manage meeting spaces and event request scheduling through Planning Center.
- Support staff with clerical tasks such as filing, copying, and correspondence.
- Maintain organized, stocked, and welcoming office and breakroom spaces.
- Oversee and coordinate pavilion facility use requests from members and community partners.

Ministry Support – Next Steps

- Provide administrative support to the Next Steps Ministry teams, including Pastoral Care, Guest Services, the Connections Team, Counseling, and the Next Steps Pastor.
- Assist with scheduling ministry teams in Planning Center.
- Support preparation for staff meetings and churchwide events.
- Assist with planning, coordinating, and executing ministry activities and events as needed.
- Help communicate, promote, and update information regarding church activities to staff.
