

Ecclesiastes 4:9 “Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil.”

Share any experience where a companion made a difficult situation easier to bear.

From the verse above, what was the good reward you experience through this companionship?

Read 1 Corinthians 12:1-25.

What do you believe your spiritual gift to be?

What is the purpose of being given a spiritual gift?

How are you able to best use your gift for the glory of God and for the benefit of others?

Share a time when an individual helped you in a difficult situation specifically in a way that they had been gifted by God.

One more thing.....

James joined a men's LifeGroup thinking it would just be Bible study, but his perspective changed when the group spent a Saturday repairing the porch of a widow in the church. Side by side with other men, he realized how serving together built brotherhood and faith. James later said, “That day showed me God can use even my simple skills to bless others.”

From this story, what stands out to you the most? What can you learn and apply about this interaction with the group and the widow?
